Did you know? As a member of BECTU both you, and your family, have access to a comprehensive range of specialist legal services - absolutely free of charge.

Thompsons Solicitors is proud to be a trusted provider of legal services to BECTU members and their families, and has decades of expertise meeting entertainment and media workers' legal needs.

With the guarantee you'll keep 100% of any compensation and never pay a penny in legal fees, the BECTU legal service provided by Thompsons beats anything on offer from the non-specialist high street law firms or claims management companies who advertise on TV.

If you, or a loved one, have been injured, or if you're looking for advice on your rights at work, make the BECTU legal service and Thompsons Solicitors your first port of call.

“

Our employment tribunal case was handled with great care and efficiency and ended with an out of court settlement which would not have occurred without the help of our solicitor at Thompsons. I am pleased with the result and feel that the support and guidance our solicitor gave us has, in no small way, vindicated our cause.”

Contact the BECTU legal service for free legal advice and representation on:

- Work and non-work related personal injury (for members)
- Non-work related personal injury (members' families)
- Serious injury
- Industrial disease or illness
- Employment law (accessed via the BECTU head office)
- Work-related criminal law advice (0800 587 7530)

Members, and family members, benefit from special terms for clinical negligence claims, basic will writing and conveyancing.

Thompsons is committed to supporting the trade union movement and is proud to stand up for BECTU members.

Thompsons only ever acts for the injured or mistreated party - never for employers and never for the insurance industry.

“

My solicitor was very efficient and polite. We were kept informed of the progress and received very thorough explanations of the claims process.
